The Business Way!
The business way to advertise is to take space with the year, take pains with your advertisements in making them attractive and change them at least as often as once a month.

You may think there are seasons when you don't need to advertise.
We have never seen that time.

Use the dull seasons for looking over your stock and running off that which is becoming out of style or unfashionable, and giving bargains.

If you have space, by the year, it costs you no more, and you can make it profitable by converting unsalable goods into money, and reinvesting the money in those things which are salable.

THE Editor of The Bulletin hasn't said a word for several days about the attendance at the World's Fair.

THE Madison Car Company failed at $2,000. Liabilities $915,000; assets $200. Idle men. This is a Democratic Administration, be gosh!

ONE mine company in Montana closed down and threw four thousand poor fellows out of employment. Perhaps most of them voted for a change—and got it.

THE city of Indianapolis is in default, having failed to refund $700,000 of bonds which fell due July 1st. Let's see! Isn't Indianapolis under a Democratic Administration?

BOYS, the real tight squeeze will come until the Democratic Congress meets. Then you'll see the fur fly. Every man who has a dollar will hold on to it until he can get it to be done by that heterogeneous mass of financial-incompetency.

AFTER all, there is only one way to convince a one-headed reformer of his folly, and that is to give him a bill to fit his theory to the facts. The only difficulty is that by the time he has satisfied himself the rest of the country may be on the ragged edge of ruin.—Courier-Journal.

Freely.
And that is why your persistence in a "Tariff for revenue only" appears so strange.

In theory it is charming.
In practice it is calamitous.
That, at least, has been the experience of the past.

Take Good Care of the Children.
For summer complaint in children there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cures dysentery, diarrhoea and cholera infantum, and never fails when used in time and the plain printed directions are followed. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. Twenty-five and fifty-cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

ONE Victor '92 for $100; roof as new. POWER & REYNOLDS.

Good Service.
To accommodate the large World's Fair travel the Chesapeake and Ohio train No. 2 will now run through, without change, and will call at Washington and Chicago over the Chesapeake and Ohio and Big Four routes.

Notice to Taxpayers.
The taxes for 1901 are now due at our office at Keith-Schneider Hardware Co's. On and after the 1st day of August 5 per cent. penalty will be added. JAMES W. FITZGERALD, Collector and Treasurer.

Hot Weather Insurance.
For twenty-five cents you can insure your self and family against any bad results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is a certain cure for these diseases. It costs but twenty-five cents. For sale by Power & Reynolds, Druggists.

Pilest Pilest Piles!
Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure hemorrhoids and itching piles when all other ointments have failed. Hon. Judge W. P. Coates, Mayville, Ky., says: "I have suffered for years with itching piles, and have used many remedies. I have used Dr. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment and been cured, while every other remedy has failed." Every box is warranted. Sold by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, fifty cents and 41 per box. WILLIAMS' MED. CO., Proprietors, Cleveland, O.
For sale by J. C. Pecor, wholesale and retail druggist.

Week Day Excursions.

ROYAL BLOOD UNITED.

King, Queen and Nobles at the Wedding
Prince George and Princess Mary of Teck.
London, July 7.—The marriage of the Duke of York (Prince George of Wales) and Princess Victoria Mary of Teck, an event to which all England had been looking forward to with deep interest, took place at 1:30 Thursday in the chapel Royal, St. James palace, London. The wedding was a brilliant function and was attended by a large gathering of the members of the British royal family, continental sovereigns, or their representatives, and many members of the highest nobility.
The occasion was made one of national rejoicing and a parting British holiday.
Great crowds of people were gathered along the line of the route from Buckingham palace to Constitution hill, through Piccadilly, St. James street, and Marlborough gate, to the garden entrance to St. James palace, which is situated on the north side of the Mall.
The decorations along the line of the royal procession were profuse and beautiful.
The roadway was kept open by the House troops in their glittering uniforms, by detachments from the various regiments, by the Metropolitan volunteers and the militia, by the Middlesex yeomanry and by the police.

Death in the City.
COLUMBUS, O. July 7.—Frank Miller, of Newark, O., who went crazy from drink, and was received at the insane asylum here less than three weeks ago, was found dead in a strong cell, whether he had been taken a few hours before, during an attack of melancholic violence. His body is bruised and he has been in the hands of the police since he was found. Dr. Richardson, the superintendent, says the marks of violence were caused by a fall in the cell.

Banker Shot.
FORT WORTH, Tex., July 8.—There was a sensational shooting affair in the Merchants' national bank Thursday morning, in which Vice-President R. M. Page was shot in the bowels and seriously wounded by Cashier A. B. Smith. Six shots were exchanged by the men. The trouble grew out of the affairs of the bank. Smith was arrested.

Room for a Democrat.
WABASH, Mo., July 7.—Secretary Carlisle Thursday called for the resignation of W. A. Rogers, a one-armed soldier of Mansfield, O., who is now said to be in the third annual office. He was appointed about three years ago.

Obama Will Be Cheap.
OKLAHOMA, July 7.—The minister of public domestic has called for a plan for the cultivation of 1,000,000 acres of cotton in Nevada.

DRIVEN OUT.

Bold Surgeons Draw on the Paris Police, And Drive Them From the Charity Hospital With Revolvers.

A Number of Officials Indignant at the Police Demand of the Government to the Hospital Has Protected Against Further Intimidation by Police.

PARIS, July 7.—The action of the police in making the arrests at the Charity hospital Wednesday, which brought forth a letter of protest from Prof. Germaine, has caused the most intense anti-police agitation in professional and other circles.

The first dispatches stating that the convalescent patients had hissed the police from the windows of the hospital and had been arrested for so doing, were incorrect.

It transpires that Police Commissioner Diers, who was in charge of a body of gendarmes that had been struggling with the rioters in the room of the hospital, heard somebody in the hospital hissing the police.

He ordered the arrest of six house-surgeons, who, when his subordinates attempted to carry out his order, the surgeons shot and locked the hospital doors.

They refused to open them when ordered to do so by the police and the latter determined to make arrests and very angry because the resistance to their burst the doors in and assaulted the surgeons who were standing in the vestibule.

Two of the surgeons were placed in custody and taken to the prefecture, where M. Loez, the prefect of police, ordered that they be released.

This further angered the police, and shortly afterward several officers returned to the hospital and seized Prof. Villain, a noted physician and chief of the medical staff, and struck him violently.

Several surgeons, witnessing this, rushed to the aid of the professor, attempted to defend the professor, but the police turned on them and handled them very roughly, inflicting serious injuries on three or four of them.

The hospital was as upsurge at this brutal manifestation of police spite, and the hospital staff determined to drive the police out of the building. Some of the surgeons procured revolvers, and at their muzzle compelled the police to withdraw.

Thursday morning a number of officials, deeply indignant at the police, intervened in the matter and demanded of the government that the hospital be defended against further intimidations by police endeavoring to redress personal grievances.

Quintessence prevails throughout the city tomorrow, but there has been no diminution of the bitter feeling entertained against the police. The officers, civil and military, are on the quivertails and the districts of the city in which further trouble may occur are closely patrolled.

The Continued Amusements. CONSTANTINOPLE, July 7.—The Sultan has at last been obliged to yield to the representations made by the representatives of the United States and Great Britain, regarding the condemned Armenians. Messrs. Thomson and Keyser, two professors at the American college, who had been ordered to death with fifteen others, have received full pardons, but on condition that they leave Turkey never to return.

St. Paul, Minn., July 7.—Mr. Perkins called President Cleveland a fat old thief and I can do nothing for him," Postmaster General Russell is reported as having said to the Washington correspondent of a St. Paul paper. Perkins was superintendent of the tenth division of the railway service. Mr. Russell asked for his resignation on the ground of offensive partisanship.

Never Met and Never Loved. CONSTANTINOPLE, July 7.—The visit of the Khedive of Egypt is connected with his projected marriage to a daughter of the Sultan. The Khedive and the Princess have never seen each other. It is expected that the Khedive will visit Vienna, Berlin, Copenhagen and Paris. His agent in going to Copenhagen is to meet the czar.

A Hero Presented With a Watch. WASHINGTON, July 7.—Basil Lockwood, the colored hero of the Ford's theater disaster, has been presented with a gold watch. Lockwood is the man who climbed to one of the back windows by means of a telegraph wire, and so held a ladder that about twenty-five frenzied clowns got out.

Omaha Bank Suspends. OMAHA, Neb., July 7.—The American savings bank, suspended Monday morning with deposits of $100,000 and assets of $200,000. It was involved in the embarrassment of the American Loan and Trust Co., through the latter's enterprises, and the Omaha and South Texas Land Co.

The Patent Office Investigation. WASHINGTON, July 7.—The investigation of the charges against Patent Commissioner Simmons was resumed at the patent office Thursday. The greater part of the day was occupied by the opening arguments of counsel. It is probable that no report will be made for a week or so.

A Homeless Paper to Suspend. ROME, July 7.—The Monteur du home, the official organ of the Vatican, will suspend publication on the first of August, the pope being unwilling to maintain the paper longer.

It's All Settled. BOSTON, July 7.—In the United States circuit court the case John R. Foster and others seeking a receiver for the Northern Investment Co., has been settled by agreement and dismissed.

Democratic Fight. WASHINGTON, July 7.—A caucus of democratic members will be held here on Saturday, August 3, at which all the elective officers of the house will be named.

NEGROES ARRESTED.

They Are Thought to Be the Murderers of the Bay Girls.

PADUCAH, Ky., July 7.—Three Negroes were arrested at Fulton Thursday for the murder of the Bay girls, near Bardwell Wednesday. One of the Negroes had a bloody knife and there was blood on his arms. Fulton is 30 miles from the scene of the murders and the Negroes could have only gotten there by boarding an Illinois Central train. A coat was found lying near one of the dead girls which was thought to have been worn by a tramp who spent the night before at Bardwell. The girls had left home in the morning to gather berries and an hour later they were found near the tracks of the Illinois Central with their throats cut from ear to ear.

CALHO, Ill., July 7.—The Kentuckians who went to Sikeston have found the supposed murderer of the Bay girls. The officers had searched him, as they did not think the identification complete enough to turn him over to the lynchers, but the Kentuckians are positive he is the right man. He says his name is Charles Miller and his home Springfield, Ill. He claims that he was never in Kentucky, and the sheriff who had him in charge consented after the man was found to allow him to be brought to Bird's Point to be confronted by the department who ferried the murder across the Mississippi river Wednesday night. The train bearing the prisoner and the Kentuckians left Sikeston at 1:30 Friday morning. It is not known whether he will be brought to Cairo or taken to Weylville on the railroad transfer boat.

CONVICT LABOR.

It Will Not Be Allowed on Any Government Work.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—Superior Architect O'Rourke has determined that convict labor shall not be used in any work undertaken for the government. All future calls for proposals will have this clause inserted.

No convict may use product of convict labor will be allowed in the work. This clause has been inserted by Architect O'Rourke, who assumes a responsibility and who says that there is no state prohibiting such action on his part, and as many complaints have been received at the department whenever convict labor is employed on any government work, he has issued this order. The undersignatory of the order has always been approved by government officials connected with the supervising architect's office, but none of them have ever taken this stand before, owing to the fact that such action has never been approved by the higher officials of the department. Superintending Architect O'Rourke, however, will follow this plan until he is convinced it is illegal. His course, however, can only be declared by the passage by congress of a law authorizing the employment of convict labor or the product of such labor.

WINNIPEG, W. Va., July 7.—A sensational suicide occurred Thursday morning. Edward Carlin, a prominent young man, walked into the river and drowned himself in sight of a crowd of people. He failed in business some time ago and Wednesday secured a position. He asked a number of old time associates to go on his bond, but was refused. This and business difficulties are supposed to have unsettled his mind. He was a son of Capt. George Corbin, who recruited the first union battery south of Mason and Dixon's line.

Found Dead in Bed.

CHICAGO, July 7.—F. W. Newbergh, a guest at McCoy's hotel, Van Buren and Clark streets, was found dead in bed Thursday afternoon. A bottle of morphine at the head of the bed told the story of the suicide. Newbergh was registered at the hotel recently from Louisville, Ky. He was well dressed and had in his pocket a number of letters which indicated that he was well connected in the southern city. Besides the letters a pocket book containing $45 was found in the dead man's pocket.
